The Maryellen McGee “Pillar of the Community Award” Nomination Form

Deadline: Nominations must be submitted by 11/11/22

This annual award is given in loving memory of Maryellen McGee, a long-time resident of Topsfield and a remarkable human being. She was selfless, caring, generous, genuine, intelligent, helpful and thoughtful. Maryellen demonstrated these qualities through her service to many community activities, such as the Topsfield Recreation Committee, HAWC, the American Red Cross, Strongest Link AIDS Services, TESPTO and Campfire Girls.

Each year, this award is presented to a member of the Topsfield community. Candidates for this award are those who demonstrate superior service to Topsfield through contributions of their time, talents and efforts to community organizations. The recipient will be selected by the Holiday on the Green Committee from a pool of nominees. This form may be completed to nominate an individual to receive the Pillar of the Community Award.

Please offer the reasons you believe the nominee should be considered for the Pillar of the Community Award. Consider creativity, achievement, special recognitions, honors, or other successes that make the nominee deserving of this award.

On a separate page, please answer the following questions to the best of your knowledge, in as much detail, and with specific examples where possible:

- Please tell us, in detail, how this candidate has demonstrated commitment, given their time, and shown their character as a volunteer in the community.
- Does this candidate have any unique or unsung contributions they have made or is making for the community?
- How did this effort solve or ease a community problem?
- What awards or recognition has the nominee received for their service?
- What else should be considered about this nominee?

If more space is needed, please continue on the back or add an attachment.

Applications must be received by November 11, 2022.
